

GUIDE TO DIVINE SERVICE

IN THOSE CHURCHES WHEREIN

The Holy Communion is Celebrated Weekly;

OR IN WHICH

Daily Morning or Evening Prayer is said,

IN

Great Britain and Ireland.

TOGETHER WITH THE

NAMES OF THE PAROCHIAL CLERGY.

NOTICE.

THE want of a Guide to the hours of the Celebration of the Holy Communion and the Daily Services of Great Britain and Ireland, has been much felt, and often expressed.

It may serve several purposes.

To travellers it will be of use, by enabling them so to arrange their journeys, and to choose their resting-places, as to be able to avail themselves of the Services of the Church.

The Parish Priest, manfully standing alone in the practice of Weekly Communion and Daily Prayer in the midst of passive carelessness, or active opposition, will be encouraged to find how many of his brethren persevere in the same holy duties: and will be more especially interested in those cases where the hours of Divine Service are the same as his own.

And is it too much to hope that more may be stirred up, to follow the many good examples here set before them?

Every care has been taken to make the Guide accurate, but the Editor will be thankful for any notice of errors or changes. He also hopes that, in instances where a weekly Celebration or the Daily Service is set on foot, it may be notified.

The Names of the Assistant Curates, which were added for the first time in the last Edition, have been omitted this year, as the List was found to be very incomplete, owing to the constant changes that were taking place among them.

The Churches wherein the Holy Communion is celebrated weekly, are marked thus †, as far as information has been obtained; but it is believed that many other Churches enjoy the blessing of Weekly Celebration, which are not marked.

The Editor will also be glad to mark those churches which are free and unappropriated if Incumbents or others will inform him on the point.

Guide to Divine Service.

"And all Priests and Deacons are to say daily the Morning and Evening Prayer either privately or openly, not being let by sickness, or some other urgent cause."—Book of Common Prayer.

N.B. Where the Services of Holy-days are not separately given it is concluded that they are the same as on ordinary days; where they are given in full it is concluded that they supersede the ordinary Service.
